BECOMING AN ELECTRICIAN

HUNT ELECTRIC

Becoming a licensed union electrician means joining a high-demand trade that powers hospitals, airports, schools, and communities. With great pay, excellent benefits, and hands-on work that makes a real impact, it's a career to be proud of.

HIGH DEMAND. HIGH PAY.

JOURNEYMAN	$113,280/yr + benefits	($182,188 total comp)
6TH PERIOD APPRENTICE	$96,288/yr + benefits	($175,244 total comp)
3RD PERIOD APPRENTICE	$56,640/yr + benefits	($102,912 total comp)
1ST PERIOD APPRENTICE	$50,976/yr + benefits	($84,595 total comp)

*Yearly wage based on published hourly rate assuming 40 hours/week and 48 weeks/year.
Effective 5/1/25 via https://mplsjatc.org/wages-benefits/

WHICH PATH IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

OPTION 1 TRADE SCHOOL

- Fastest Option
- Cheaper than College
- Most Expensive Option

OPTION 2 PRE APPRENTICE

- Cheaper than Trade School
- Takes More Time
- Get Paid to Work

OPTION 3 ORGANIZED IN

This is an option for those who have working hours in an adjacent or non-union electrical experience.

READY TO GET STARTED?

LOCAL 292 - MINNEAPOLIS

DAN BREMSETH

320-260-1783

dbremseth@ibew292.org

LOCAL 110 - ST. PAUL

AARON JOHNSON

651-776-4239 ext. 5713

ajohnson@ibew110.org

*Check your area for local unions.